The Concert of the Sangerbund.

At Young's Hall, yesterday afternoon, was a splendid triumph for our German friends. The Musical Society of St. Louis, Rock Island, Madison, Watertown, Manitowoc, Peoria, and Chicago, were ably represented. Each Society sang separately, and elicited much applause. The ladies of our Musical Society joined in the chorus, and were loudly cheered. Their clear voices rang sweetly out, "striking the electric chain wherever we are darkly bound," and many a heart silently asked—

"Whence is the night of the master spell? Speak to me, voice of sweet sound, and tell! How hast thou come, with one sweet breath, Pandemic visions of love and death?"

"How couldst thou back with a note, a sigh, Widen and tone from the days gone by— A sunny glance, or a fond farewell, Speak to me, voice of sweet sound, and tell!"

"Something of mystery there secretly dwells, Waiting thy touch, in our bosom here— Something that finds not the answer here— A chain to be clasped in another sphere!"

All the Societies joined in singing several choruses under the direction of Mr. BALATKA, and such billows of sweet sound never before rolled up from Young's Hall. A full tenor voice was clearly discernible, like a soft ripple floating above the great wave of deeper sound. How many hearts went back to the dear Fatherland, to the sunny days when they sang these songs by their native streams, under the shadows of their loved home trees! We saw in the quivering lip of more than one singer, that the heart's deep fount was stirred with cluster-long memories.

"And who will think, when the strain is sung, Till a thousand hearts are stirred, What life-drops from the minstrel's wrung, Have gushed with every word?"

There were many joyous faces and dimpling smiles, and all were delighted with the concert of the Sangerbund.

The concert of the Musical Society, which was advertised for eleven o'clock, at Market Hall, came off this morning at Young's Hall. Madam Jacobi sang magnificently, and was enthusiastically cheered. Miss Hintze sang finely, and a lady with whom our musical public is unacquainted, played an elegant concert variation on the piano. The overture and choruses were admirably rendered. The Hall was filled.

A Movement Among the Young Men.

We are gratified to state that the young men of this city propose holding a public meeting at Concert Hall, on Saturday next, at 8 o'clock P. M., for the purpose of considering the recent assault on Senator SUMNER, and the outrages on Freedom in Kansas. A committee of young men have taken the matter in hand, and are circulating calls among their brethren, which are very numerous and generally signed. A spirit is manifested which bodes a large attendance and an enthusiastic meeting. Young men of Milwaukee! It is your duty to attend this meeting, and if you do not, you will prove yourselves recreant to the noblest feelings of humanity and right. We will publish the call on Monday.

HERR DRIESBACH.—There are but few, either in this country or in Europe, to whom the name of this individual is as familiar as "household words." Well, the veritable lion-tamer himself, with a vast collection of animals, and a circus embracing more talented performers than any now traveling, will be in Milwaukee on the 10th and 11th of July. As the bills say, there is a "galaxy of stars" attached to this latter department, which it would take too much space to specify individually, we promise that, with such unprecedented attraction, the canvass, however extensive, will be crowded during their stay in this city.

LARCENY.—Five boys the eldest but 14 and the youngest but 8 years of age were arrested by the police yesterday afternoon, for stealing tools from the carpenters in the 6th Ward. They were taken to the Watch House, where they confessed their guilt and pointed out the articles each one had stolen.

MESSRS ADLER AND NEWBOUR.—We call attention to the Card of this firm in another column, to-day. We are assured that this is a bona fide sale, and they are gentlemen who mean what they say, and who always prove their words by their deeds. We would advise the ladies, and all others in want of goods to give them a call.

FIRST TRIP.—The new three masted schooner, Hans Crocker, cleared yesterday afternoon for Buffalo, with 3,350 bush wheat, and 3,000 barrels flour. This is her first trip, and we hope the owners will realize their highest anticipations. Capt. James Stewart is her commander. Fair winds attend her.

The Rev. John Kidd will deliver a sermon to the young men, in the South Presbyterian Church to-morrow afternoon. The service commences at 3 o'clock precisely.

Prof. S. G. FINNEY, who has been absent from this city for some time, has returned, and will lecture at Young's Hall, to-morrow evening, at the usual hour.

The Rev. S. C. Macreeding will deliver a discourse in the Spring Street M. E. Church to-morrow evening, at 7 o'clock, contrasting the Heaven of the Bible and the Heaven of the Spiritualists of the present day.

Rev. Dr. Vermilye, of Clinton, N. York, will preach at Plymouth Church Sunday morning and evening.

For COLLINGWOOD.—The Backlogs State leaves here for Collingwood at 8 o'clock A. M. to-morrow.

The freight train between this city and Racine, ran off the track, yesterday, near the county line, and in coupling the cars, one of the employees of the company was so severely injured that it was feared he would not recover.
